Agape News

As the Men's Walk #24 is approaching, please keep them all in your prayers. If you are providing Agape for the weekend, please have your Agape at Springville by send off on Thursday evening. 60 items should be enough to supply the Team & Pilgrims with your Agape. Decorated place mats should also be returned to Dean & Vickie Perry before the Walk.

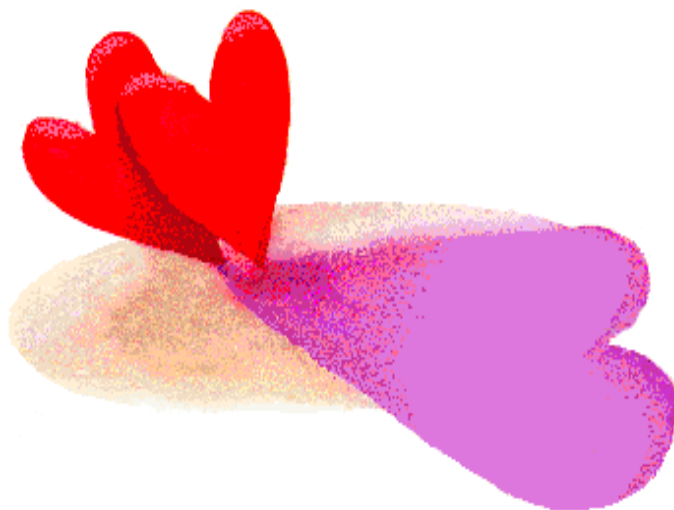

If you are writing Agape letters, please have them in alphabetical order and rubber banded together before placing in the mail box. Have the Team and Pilgrim letters each in a separate banded pile. Chapel Agape letters should have "CHAPEL" in the corner, as well as the name of the speaker and talk number.

There are a few spots left on the prayer vigil. Please notify us if you still wish to fill one of the empty spots. Support the pilgrims with your prayers, and presence at Candlelight on Saturday and Closing on Sunday.

God Bless, Jim & Lora Keiper

For surely I know the plans I have for you;
 says the Lord, plans for your welfare and not for harm, to give you a future with hope.

Receive Rainbow Connection by E-mail!

Clara Wilder, Walk #18, sends out the Rainbow Connection by e-mail. We are grateful for her willingness to serve.

You may be asking "Why would I want to receive the Rainbow Connection by email?" There are three really good reasons.

1. The e-mail version of the newsletter is sent 8-10 days before the hard copy version is mailed.
2. The newsletter can be sent to as many locations as you want – home, work, college.
3. With the increased postal rates, the cost to the community increased substantially. The more people that use e-mail, the less the cost will be to the community.

Please consider making this change. When you do so, please notify two people
 Clara Wilder at cwilder@adelphia.net and Walt and Sarah Mathias at smathias@rochester.rr.com
